Dobie Gillis Here Friday, Saturday

The senior class at Yuba City high school will present "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis" Friday and Saturday nights, beginning at 8 in the multi-purpose room.

The light-hearted comedy, portraying the irrepressible Dobie now widely known on television, has been exceptionally successful as a high school production all over the United States, according to Mrs. Rick Wyville, high school teacher who is directing it.

Tickets are 50 cents for students and $1 for adults. They may be purchased at the high school business office, at the Music World, 219 Clark ave. in Yuba City, or at the door.

The play, written by William Davidson, is based directly on the book by the same name, written by Max Schulman, who created the Dobie character.

These are the production crews:

Stage — Bob Loew, manager; Gene Kuhn, crew chief; Barbara Abbott.

Lights — Bob Gordon, Pete Holcombe.

Props — Anne Prichett, chairman.

Costumes — Julie Johnson, chairman, Linda Otto, Laura Otto.

Make-up — Judy Vogt, chairman, Peggy Meyers, Janice Boorman, Diana Smith, Mary Justeson, Kay Johnson.

Publicity — Marsha Soloman, chairman.

Prompter — Jon Blevins, Joanne Blevins.

COMEDY COMING . . .

SCHEMER — Del Atkinson, as Dobie Gillis, urges Marcy McKinsey, playing Bonnie Willet, to sign the name of glamorous Limbo Lamb to a photograph as part of a scheme to make his girl friend of the moment jealous.
